BLAISDELL MEMORIAL LIBRARY
Volunteer Policy
(Revised 9.18.18)

The Board of Trustees of the Blaisdell Memorial Library (“BML”) supports the use of volunteers in the library as an adjunct to the need for fully staffing BML and as an outlet for Nottingham residents wishing to help the community. Volunteers support the staff. Volunteers do not replace appropriately trained and paid staff, nor do they compensate for inadequate staffing patterns, failure to fill vacant posts, or cutbacks in library funding. The range of responsibilities for volunteers is limited in scope and assigned hours.

Volunteers are covered by the town of Nottingham’s insurance policies for all activities performed on behalf of BML. In accordance with insurance policies, volunteers must provide references and authorize reference checks so that BML may properly screen those wishing to volunteer at the library. Volunteers 18 and over will also have a background check. An application must be completed for all volunteer positions. The minimum age for volunteers is age 12. BML does not retain volunteers for court-imposed community service work.

The Library Director will interview potential volunteers and evaluate their capabilities for available positions, their level of commitment and their ability to work well with the staff and the public. All volunteers will work under supervision of paid staff and the authority of the Library Director.

Volunteers are expected to work in a cooperative and professional manner with staff members and the public, and must follow all library procedures. Failure to satisfactorily perform assigned tasks, demonstration of a lack of commitment, and/or inability to work in concert with the staff and the public are cause for termination. Volunteers shall have the right to end the relationship with the Library at any time, though appropriate notice is desired.

The Library Director and the Library Trustees will periodically evaluate the effectiveness of the volunteer program to ensure that the Library is receiving full benefit from it.

I have received a copy of the volunteer policy, which I understand and agree to abide by while serving as a volunteer at the Blaisdell Memorial Library.
